

The Great Friends
Authors: Leandro Corrales and Fabián Lara

One day in Madagascar Island in 1750 the food began to run out, and all animals of Madagascar began to look for something to eat.

An ox named Lensis went looking for food because he was very hungry, on the way through the jungle looking for food he ran into a fox, Lensis then developed a good friendship with the fox Murdock.

Lensis and Murdock became friends and every weekend they got together and had sleepovers. At night they played a lot of games, but during the day, the 2 animals needed to go to the jungle to take some food to eat during the week.

But in the jungle lived a tiger called Tiago who was very selfish, and he wanted all the food of the jungle for himself. Tiago was a bad animal that didn't like to be friends with other animals.

Tiago had a big problem. He was a meat lover, and he wanted to eat all the animals he saw.

On one weekend, Murdock and Lensis played a lot and it was too late to get the food, but they did not care and they risked going out to get the food. When they were looking for food they had to start different routes because it was too late to get the week's food for both of them together, so they left to look for food and they decided to meet in Murdock's house at 12 m.. But after 12 m. Murdock came to his house and he didn't see Lensis anywhere, which worried him. He decided to go looking for him. Murdock went to find Lensis and when he saw Lensis, he went to help him because the bad tiger Tiago had Lensis cornered, and as soon as Murdock saw that Tiago cornered Lensis he screamed "Tiago, don't do it".

The bad tiger heard his old friend Murdock and stopped. Tiago turned around and went to Murdock, in that moment Murdock told Tiago that eating other animals was bad and that he shouldn't want to be a bad friend. At that moment Tiago remembered all his adventures with Murdock.

Then Murdock introduced Lensis to Tiago, and Tiago apologized with Lensis. That night Tiago went to Murdock's house to sleep with Murdock and Lensis.

When Tiago got up, Lensis and Murdock had prepared breakfast for him. Right then, Tiago knew that he had made two special friends. So Tiago said:

-Thank you Lensis and Murdock, for helping me change. Now I'm good.

Murdock says:

-You are welcome Tiago. You belong to the family. All this is for the good of the jungle.

So Tiago, Lensis and Murdock lived happily forever

The End
