Well vs Good

well	good
↓	↓
adverb	adjective
describes verbs	describes nouns
+ How well do you play soccer? - Pretty well. About average, I guess. Not very well.	+ How good are you at sports? - I'm pretty good at sports. I guess I'm OK. Not too good.

Good is an adjective. However, remember adjectives can follow sense-verbs and be-verbs, so you also feel good, look good, smell good, are good, have been good, etc. Confusion can occur because well can function either as an adverb or an adjective. When well is used as an adjective, it means "not sick" or "in good health." For this specific sense of well, it's OK to say you feel well or are well -- for example, after recovering from an illness. When not used in this health-related sense, well functions as an adverb; for example, "I did well on my exam."
