

Topics Language Tests 10th Grade

Unit 1

- Describing personalities
- Expressing likes and dislikes
- Describing personal change
- Stating advantages and disadvantages
- Talking about rules
- Using verbs followed by gerunds and infinitives
- Using noun clauses after be
- Understanding and using compound family terms

Unit 2

- Describing rules and obligations in the past
- Giving advice about the past
- Offering explanations about past events
- Using past modals and phrasal modals of obligation
- Using modals with multiple functions
- Making collocations with the word problem
- Using verbs of belief

Unit 3

- Describing and giving information about places
- Stating preferences
- Presenting contrasting information
- Categorizing and evaluation issues
- Using defining and non-defining relative clauses
- Determining the correct order of modifiers
- Connecting and contrasting ideas
- Talking about features of cities
- Using compound terms of towns

Unit 4

- Describing routines and habits
- Giving advice
- Explaining reasons and conditions
- Giving interpretations of meaning
- Using reduced time clauses
- Using clauses stating reasons and conditions
- Using phrasal verbs related to energy and sleep
- Using sleep idioms

Unit 5

- Describing types of communication
- Talking about appropriate behavior

- Starting a conversation
- Making small talk
- Reporting what someone else has said
- Using terms to describe behavior
- Using various expressions for reported speech
- Using infinitive and gerund phrases
- Practicing reported speech

Unit 6

- Presenting information in chronological order
- Narrating news events
- Organizing and presenting topical information
- Using storytelling expressions
- Combining and contrasting present perfect and simple past
- Combining and contrasting present perfect and present perfect continuous
- Using adverbs with the simple past and the past perfect

Unit 7

- Talking about frustrating situations
- Participating in a debate
- Talking about future trends
- Giving opinions
- Using technology buzzwords
- Using expressions that connect ideas formally
- Using words for forms of communication
- Making the passive of the present continuous, present perfect, and future
- Making negative and tag questions for giving opinions

Unit 8

- Describing job qualifications
- Offering solutions to problems
- Commenting on facts
- Analyzing reasons
- Telling the qualities of creative people
- Making collocations related to problem solving
- Making reduced relative clauses
- Using non-defining relative clauses as sentence modifiers

Unit 9

- Comparing customs and habits
- Presenting contrasting information
- Making generalizations
- Talking about past habits
- Using expressions related to accepting or changing things
- Using expressions with keep and stay

- Using clauses and phrases showing contrast and exception
- Talking about past habitual actions using used to and would

Unit 10

- Describing everyday irritations
- Describing complaining styles
- Making and responding to complaints
- Identifying solutions to problems
- Giving advice
- Using expressions with drive, get, and make
- Using -ed words that describe feelings
- Using relative clauses and noun clauses
- Making simple and complex indirect questions

Unit 11

- Discussing hypothetical situations
- Describing personal characteristics
- Explaining decisions
- Forming antonyms with prefixes
- Using adjectives and nouns referring to personal values
- Using the present unreal conditional with unless, only if, and even if
- Discussing wishes and regrets

Unit 12

- Comparing and contrasting customs
- Predicting the future
- Making hypotheses
- Giving advice
- Explaining preferences
- Using expressions ending with prepositions
- Using compound adjectives
- Using the future perfect and future perfect continuous
- Using mixed conditionals