

MAY I?

A Complete the chart with the words in the box.

are allowed to	can	have to aren't allowed to	can't	have got to

Permission	Obligation	Prohibition

B Write each sentence a different way.

- You can ride your bike here. You're allowed to ride your bike here.
- You aren't allowed to park your car here. _____
- You're allowed to camp here. _____
- You have to wear shoes. _____
- You've got to wear your seat belt. _____
- You can't chew gum in class. _____

STRANGE HAPPENINGS

GROUP WORK Imagine you are in these situations. What do you think they mean? Compare your ideas.

- You walk into your classroom. There are no people there.
- You are driving a car. A police officer stops you.
- It's 3:00 A.M. You hear a loud noise outside your door.
- You receive a greeting card. There is no message and no return address.
- You find an old painting in your garage. The person in the painting looks like you.

A: You walk into your classroom. There are no people there.
What do you think it means?

B: It might mean you're in the wrong classroom.

C: Or maybe it means you're very, very late for class!